

Transformational Leadership Incubator

Are you a non-profit leader who identifies as part of the African, Asian, Latinx, or Native American diaspora (BIPoC) supporting your community with substance use at the forefront? Are you looking for supports on how to run a successful and thriving nonprofit organization?

The Transformational Leadership Incubator supports BIPoC non-profit leaders, using a cohort model, to further develop their capacity for their work address the negative impacts of substance use in their communities through a wide range of programming that help improve health, wellness, and quality of life for community members.

Opportunity

HRiA is seeking non-profit organizations with BIPoC leaders that:

- Have been operating for at least 3 years with 501c3 status or Fiscal Sponsorship or tribes that have a government-to-government relationship with the Commonwealth
- As the funding landscape shifts, we've updated our criteria for the program: have an average annual operating budget of $350k over the past five years.
- Do not historically have access to or capacity to apply for "traditional" funding streams such as government funding

*Tribes are exempt from the annual operating budget maximum
This Incubator provides:

- A series of trainings to build organizational capacity (Schedule to be announced in March)
- One-on-one sessions for tailored support
- Peer engagement and learning opportunity
- Stipends up to $15k to participate in the program

How to apply:

The application closes March 4, 2025
