The Hilda and Preston Davis Foundation Awards Program for Eating Disorders Research

Program Overview:

The Davis Foundation Awards Program for Eating Disorders Research supports innovative, clinically-relevant research that seeks to understand the underlying biology of eating disorders, including anorexia nervosa and bulimia nervosa, and to improve patient care. These awards are designed to build a strong scientific workforce dedicated to understanding the etiology of eating disorders and therapeutic development.

The Program provides two types of Awards, that respectively fund Senior Postdoctoral Fellows and Junior Faculty Investigators, working in non-profit academic, medical and research institutions in the United States. All applicants must hold a Ph.D., M.D., or comparable degree and U.S. citizenship is not required.

The Davis Foundation Awards Program employs a two-stage Review process. In the first stage submitted Letters of Intent (LOI) are reviewed. Based on ranking, applicants will be invited to submit Full Proposals to be reviewed for funding consideration.

LOI Application Deadline: Friday, September 28, 2018, 12:00 PM ET
