SENIOR POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP Questions

How do I determine completed years of experience on the Face Sheet?

When you add up all the months of full-time experience, if the final figure is, for example, 4 years and 10 months, you will check the box for "4" on the Face Sheet. This number will determine the appropriate stipend level. This is not used for the eligibility requirement.

Should I include my postdoctoral research experience in my former lab?

Yes - all postdoctoral research experience, former and current, should be counted. However, if after your receiving one's degree, any time spent in the graduate lab to finish up papers, etc, should not be counted.

How do you count part-time research experience?

Part-time research experience is pro-rated. If you were conducting one year of postdoctoral research experience at 25% effort, then that one year will be counted as three months (12 months x .25 percent effort = 3 months). State this clearly in your biosketch and have your Mentor confirm the total years of research experience completed at the beginning of the funding period.

Do you count the time spent on conducting research for a second doctoral degree as postdoctoral research experience?

No, the time spent conducting research for a second doctoral degree does not count as postdoctoral research experience.

What is considered full-time experience?

Full-time postdoctoral research experience is defined as employment as a postdoctoral fellow in a research laboratory five full days each week. If research was interrupted for medical leave of absence, to complete clinical training or for other reasons, these months are not considered part
